Sylvia, 23, I love you twistedly because my heart has been detached since birth. But when you gave me such a powerful dose of love, far beyond my wildest dreams, that I felt able to face anything for you, I decided to put my life in your hands.

Z Nation brings back Addy Addison Carver (Anastasia Baranova) with Doc Steven Beck (Russell Hodgkinson) and the band happy to see her. Addy seems to have found a way to ditch this slick of eyes while her new hairstyle covers her missing eye. Addy's return home is short-lived when he joins the Z Nation crew for a trip to the Z-Biscuit factory. This is where brains are baked into cookies that talkers eat to prevent them from eating people. With the city outside these cookies, talkers turn deadly. Unless a new batch gets humans to risk talkers becoming zombies and becoming their dinner.
Z Nation - Addy Carver is back despite losing an eye
Addy Carver is as beautiful as ever for her return to Z Nation. While a man might cover a bald spot with a pint, Addy used the same idea to cover his missing eye. In addition, it works well on the star returning to Z Nation.
Murphy Alvin Berard Murphy (Keith Allen) is now very red in color and called sunburn by new people they know. It seems that Murphy, along with 10K Tommy (Nat Zang), Warren Lt. Roberta Warren (Kellita Smith) have a tendency to don biker clothes lately. Or at least that's what the SyFy clips indicate.
Z Nation Clan Goes Biker-Style
Murphy with his silver spikes and studs on his gloves resembles the leader of this garbed leather band on Z Nation. But they seem more like motorists than survivors of an apocalypse. Murphy even has colors on the back of his black leather jacket. It says Murphy's Limbo above an image like a skull with Life's a Gamble underneath. Doc also enters the Limbo thing. His T-shirt says What Happens in Limbo – Stays in Limbo, which looks like a take on Las Vegas. The old crew is back together again minus some old favorites. They also now have George Georgia St. Clair (Katy O'Brian). It appears to be a shot of George Washington Newmerica. Doc takes Z-Weed Journey
While Addy, Warren, 10K, and Murphy hunt at the Z-Biscuit bakery, Doc and George set out to follow a talker's judgment. This talker is Lieutenant Joseph Dante (Zack Ward) who was tried for trial after being charged with a traitor. During this trip, Doc ran over a zombie and an airbag injured George's ankle. She's in a lot of pain, so Doc reaches into her bag and pulls out some z-weed. The two became very tall, which was originally due to George's grief. But they continue their toking during their trip to Dante's trial after a brief stop to fix the car.
Zombie Intestines
The zombie they hit is wrapped in the car's engine on Z Nation. A Stone Doc pulls out of the engine of the car what appears to be a mile from the zombie's intestines. Doc keeps talking a lot about fact with George while doing it. They talk about how to try to reestablish these laws in this new world. Doc has a vision of founding fathers centuries ago smoking faeces while creating the U.S. Constitution.
Z Nation – Dante in The Garbage
George and Doc soon find the military transport vehicle that kicked Dante out. It is parked on the side of the road and the people inside are dead, but Dante is not one of them. About 20-30 feet away from the vehicle is a garbage can that is moving. On it, you see the words in blood: This is what happens to traitors. When George removes the top of this garbage there may be Dante in pieces. His head is still alive, so he gives mercy.
One Eye - One Hand - Addy Carver and 10K Combine for battle
Addy Carver with his missing eye joins forces with 10K. With 10K losing a hand, the two become a unified force to kill zombies. This duo naturally codifies a tactical dance when it comes to taking the puppies and kittens down. Addy kneels in front of 10K and holds his baseball bat infused like a 10K surface to balance his weapon. When you call change, swap both weapons and keep killing zombies.
Z-Cookies - Scoop Out the Brains!
In Z Nation, Murphy, Warren, Addy and 10K find the Z-Biscuit factory. They are in extreme need of a lot of these cookies for talkers back in Limbo. Without the biscuits, talkers become hungry zombies who will invade their city. The people who cook the Z-Biscuits is an operation made up of a mother and her four children. Unfortunately, half of them turned zombies after the Z-Biscuits were terminated. The zombie mom has the secret recipe in the Z.
Strange Family Affair
Cookies With only two non-bitten children have tried to recreate the recipe without any advantage. So Murphy and company coaxial one of the two remaining human sons to enter the office above. This is where they keep the zombie mom and her two zombie kids locked up. The scenes are hysterical, as the zombie mother and children eat brains, which they already had at the bakery. Consuming the brain brings them back to normal. They become the most but a little short on intellect. Mom starts baking these cookies and Warren assigns Murphy to the family so she can go with them back to Limbo and join the city as talkers.
Z – Brutal new world scooping skull brains and putting them in a mixing bowl seems like normal work. This continues without so much as a flinch from anyone. The new world is brutal and people have become so immune to blood and guts that it is nothing to them. When Doc removed the zombie organs and guts from the car's engine, he did it as if he were cleaning the engine blades. Breaking your heads and walking blood-spattered is a new way of life for the people of Z Nation. Make sure you go back to Soap Dirt to check out all the Z Nation news and TV shows.
Addison Grace Carver, better known as Addy, is a main character and survivor of the outbreak in Z Nation. He is a member, and sometimes, of the second-in-command of the Westward-Bound Survivor Group.
Background[edit]
Addison Addy Grace Carver is a redheaded girl who apparently defied the odds to survive the zombie apocalypse. Before the world went to hell, people would describe her as sensitive, with the soul of an artist. When push came to shove, she had the guts of a killer. [1] His Facebook page, as revealed in the episode Full Metal Zombie, indicates that he studied at ACC and lived in Albany, New York, before the zombie apocalypse. In a flashback, she is seen wearing a red and gray/silver Letterman jacket with the letter W. A rear flashback on the first day shows Addy in a WHL game between the Spokane Chiefs and the Tri-City Americans (both washington state-based teams) when the zombie outbreak began. This was also when he met Mack, who was a player for Americans. They go from there to their home to find their mother and brother, who relates to the previous flashback. On Dying Zombie Die ... Again, it is revealed that she had shot down her zombified mother on the first night of the breakup, being the repressed memory that torments her during the first season. Because of this memory and her short time with cannibals, Addy possibly suffers from PTSD (Post Traumatic Stress Disorder), which put a strain on her and Mack's relationship and could be the main reason she decided to leave the group and join the entire female community of abuse survivors. Warren's Dream is revealed to have been bitten by Murphy's daughter Lucy, giving the couple a way to communicate telematically. This could have happened because of Addy's eye injury. Addy uses a mace (made from an aluminum baseball bat) known as the Z-Whacker as his signature weapon.

years later Addy and Lucy Murphy are seen on the run from Zone soldiers. They are supposed to have been up and running for 2 years now. Addy is now seen on a patch. This was probably caused by his struggle with Man. She and Lucy Murphy rescue a girl from their zombified mother from the car. They return to the road on their way to NovaMerica when they are for zone soldiers. They are a safe awaits a new location. However Doc, 10K, Sgt. Lilly and Lt. Mueller meet them none of them know they were there. One of the soldiers in the Area begins to deceive them, but ends up being killed by 10K. Addy was in charge of shooting them. A soldier thought to be merciful ends up returning making it very difficult to kill. This was the discovery of the Mad Zs. 10K and Addy shooting several times turning back and forth at each other. After several times they finally managed to kill him. At the moment 10K shoots Addy. It was first alleged by Lucy Murphy that she was dead. However, Addy was only scratched in the cheek. Lucy Murphy is taken by one of the soldiers. The other soldier in the Zone clings to Addy by dominating it. While Lucy Murphy is taking Addy tells her he will find her. Addy kills the Guard in the Zone and sets out to find Lucy. This is the last we see of Addy for the rest of the season.

I thought I would never see this again. - Addy about your Z-Whacker. Amish zombies. Really? Really?! - Addy to Full Metal Zombie. I'd give my female left for this Z-whacker right now! - Addy without your Z-Whacker. I'd rather die believing in a lie than live believing in nothing - Addy to Mack about a possible way to end the apocalypse Night of the Undead - Great Movie. Reality sucked. - Addy about zombies. Go away! I'll find you there. - Addy to Lucy about meeting her in Newmerica Well, we've seen Amish zombies, Mormon zombies. We have Mennonite zombies, we have a trifacta. Addy to Zombaby!
